1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, lines 6-7, "to permit drawing of said moist paper towels out of said bag body" and lines 17-18, "so as to isolate said moist paper towels from said adhering region" lack antecedent basis, as "a bag body adapted to receive said moist paper towels therein" fails to locate the defined towels in the bag body.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Deflander et al. (5,531,325). Disclosed is a moist paper towel package comprising a stack of moist paper towels (6), a bag body (5) having a top wall formed with an opening (10) and having an outer surface, an inner surface and an adhering region (see column 7, lines 32-40) around the opening, a cover member (7; 24) provided on the adhering region covering the opening, a layer of releasable adhesive (see column 7, lines 32-40) adhering the cover member to the adhering region and sealing the opening, and a membrane (18, see column 8, lines 1-11) adhering removably on the inner surface of the top wall to isolate the moist paper towels from the adhering region.

As to claim 2, the membrane comprises material inherently resistant to a liquid cleaning solution (see column 6, lines 53-63).

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Deflander et al. alone or in view of Marlin et al. (6,505,740). Applicants describe towels being moistened with a cleansing agent to remove oil and adhesive to be known. Marlin et al. disclose moistening a towel with a cleansing agent to remove oil and inherently adhesive. To employ towels moistened with the cleansing agent of Marlin et al. in the package of Deflander et al. would have been obvious in order to provide the advantages described by Deflander et al. at column 2, lines 20-40 for these particular towels.

7. Claim 4 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Dependent claim 5 would also then be allowable.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shown are similar moist towel packages.
